ROAD COM. PLAN UN-EMPLOYMENT RELIEF

TO PRESENT PLAN TO BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

C. J. McNamara, and Marjorie Hanson represented Crawford county at the unemployment relief conference conducted by the Northern Michigan Road Commissioners' association at the Park Place hotel in Traverse City Friday.

A survey conducted during the meeting among road officials of the approximately 25 counties that were represented indicated that a third more men will be employed on county road work in Northern Michigan this winter than last, so complete is the cooperation of the county commissions in the unemployment relief campaign. Many counties will advance their contemplated spring and summer road work into the winter.

L. A. Burridge, division engineer of the state highway department at Cadillac, told the meeting that clearing can be done more economically in winter than summer. Other speakers were former senator William Connelly of Grand Haven and J. W. Hansen of Lansing, editor of the magazine Michigan Roads and Airports.

The taking over of the township roads by the County will take effect January 1st, after which time the County and State will share in the costs of maintenance. Money for that purpose, however, will not become available before April 1st and members of the County board are planning on construction work this fall and winter and orders for payment of labor for that purpose will be dated April 1st when creditors will then be enabled to cash the orders.

These orders, says Mr. McNamara, will be perfectly good at that time and it is believed that many merchants will be willing to accept them in exchange for commodities whenever presented and will be carried by them until the time comes when they become due. In this way, he says, work can proceed at an early date. Without such an arrangement it would be difficult for the County to finance the operations.

Further, says Mr. McNamara, in cases where families are out of work and out of funds for support, the adult male members of the families will be given employment on the road crews. In that way there should be no, or at least, few families dependent upon the poor commission for support. A reasonable wage will be offered which should be sufficient to support the family.

In further support of this plan, provisions are being arranged whereby should the supporting members of the family refuse to work, and he is physically able to do so, he will have to arrange other plans for the support of his family. In case of neglect of a family, and the provider is physically able to do so, arrest will be made charging him with neglect to support his family. Upon conviction in such cases, prison sentence would not doubt follow.

This plan, it is understood, will be presented before the annual meeting of the County Board of supervisors that will convene Monday, Oct. 12th. This would practically mean, "A job for every man, and charity for none," in keeping with a plan that is in operation in Grand Rapids, Mich.

DANISH SUPPER

The ladies of the Danish Lutheran church will give their annual Danish supper at Danabod Hall Wednesday, October 21st, at 5:30 p. m. Everyone invited. A good attendance is desired.

First "Banjo" Clock

The banjo clock was invented in 1801 by Simon Willard and so called because of its shape. It was an eight-day non-striking pendulum clock. Willard obtained a patent for it in 1802.

GRAYLING POST STOLE LEGION SHOW

Mr. O. P. Schumann, Grayling, Mich. Oct. 3, 1931.

Dear Sir: The writer is a graduate of three schools of art, with years of practical experience in commercial art, and has designed and built hundreds of decorations for various public gatherings ranging all the way from a solemn funeral to a boisterous prize fight.

I am not trying to impress you with a big word picture of myself or my accomplishments but am trying to show that I have had enough experience to judge a good piece of advertising and an excellent decoration when I see one, and I saw both in the splendid American Legion parade held in Detroit one week ago. In the humble opinion of the writer the Paul Bunyan boys of your Grayling Post stole the show with the most original decoration in that huge parade. They did a splendid job of advertising both for their own post and your town and deserve high praise from the citizens of Grayling for a job well done.

Yours truly,
Stuart Griffith,
Exchange Steward,
125th Inf. Regt.,
182nd E. A. Regt.,
32nd Div. Spl. Troops.

JOHN ISENHAUER PASSED AWAY

John Isenhauer, a resident of Grayling for a long number of years, passed away at his home at five o'clock Sunday evening after a lingering illness of over a year's duration with heart troubles. Within the past year Mr. Isenhauer had a couple of serious illnesses, but each time rallied, but his late illness lasted but a few days when he passed away.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon with services at the home at 1 o'clock and at Michelson Memorial church at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. H. J. Salmon officiating. There was a large number of old neighbors and friends in attendance at the last rites, and the large profusion of flowers bore testimony of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment was in Elmwood cemetery, members of the Grayling lodge of Oddfellows acting as pallbearers and attending the funeral in a body.

Mr. Isenhauer was born in Bloomfield, Bay County, May 18, 1872. He came to Grayling in 1904 and has made his home here since.

Mr. Isenhauer was a finished carpenter by trade. He was always kept busy and when he did any job of carpentering it could be relied upon as being well done. He was very ambitious and at times even though he did not feel well, he would be on the job somewhere.

Mr. Isenhauer was united in marriage to Mrs. Minnie Dubeay in 1917, who with three brothers and one sister survive, Leonard of Grayling; Martin R. and William of Reine, Mich.; and one sister, Mrs. Frank Hodge of Alamo, North Dakota. All have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

Those from out of town in attendance at the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waldbauer, Mr. and Mrs. William Waldbauer, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Bay City and Mrs. John Underwood, Mt. Forest, Michigan.

ROADS VERSUS DOLES

It is generally believed in America that the only feasible cure for the unemployment problem is to provide jobs—and not dols. The experience of England, riddled with debt largely because of its out-of-work pensions has not been missed by thinking citizens of this country.

Stimulated public works on the part of the states is being advocated on all sides. Foremost among such activities is the building of roads. In many cases eighty cents of the road dollar goes to labor, which most needs it, and building materials are extremely cheap at the present time.

As a consequence, a number of states are planning intensive road programs for the winter. Few localities have sufficient improved road mileage. We have developed great trunk highways between main centers of population—while, for the most part, five or ten miles away, in farming areas, roads are subject to the vagaries of weather and the seasons. It may be that more good feeder roads will be a prime factor in alleviating the need for an American dolt. And every dollar we spend on them now will produce many dollars in the form of more efficient transport, easier disposal of farm produce and similar benefits.

OLD RESIDENT PASSED AWAY

Sunday morning at ten o'clock Mrs. Dorothy Leonard, widow of the late George Leonard Sr., passed peacefully away at her home at the ripe age of 80 years. The cause of death was due to the infirmities of old age. Mrs. Leonard having been in a feeble condition for several months.

Dorothy Helms was born in Stratton, Ontario, and when an infant her parents moved to Port Austin, they being among the pioneer settlers of that place. When she was still a child her parents moved to Grant Center where they remained for several years and where she was united in marriage to George Leonard. Six children were born to the union all of whom survive except one daughter, Mrs. Mary Udell, who passed away several years ago.

Previous to moving to Grayling they resided at Roseburg and Port Huron, Michigan, coming here in 1899 and making this their residence since that time. Mr. Leonard passed away several years ago and since that time Mrs. Leonard had made her home alone, rearing her grandson, Stanley Udell, who was left bereft of a mother, Mrs. Mary Udell, when a babe.

Mrs. Leonard was remarkable for her age, reading and writing without the aid of glasses. Her friends were numbered among her many neighbors with whom she was a favorite, both with young and old.

The funeral of the deceased was held Wednesday afternoon with services at the Free Methodist church, Rev. Marlin Maxwell officiating at the services. Interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

Surviving the deceased are two daughters and three sons, Mrs. E. Carley, Prescott; Mrs. Earl Penn, West Branch; George Leonard, Flint; Neil Leonard, Cincinnati, O.; and Ira, Grayling. All were present except the son Neil, who is ill and was unable to be in attendance. The deceased is also survived by three brothers and one step-brother, George and Sira Helms, Sandpoint, Idaho; Allen Helms, Kinde, Mich.; Jewel Giles, Jetta, Mich.

Those from out of town in attendance at the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. George Leonard of Flint.

GAME LICENSES TO INCREASE FUNDS

The Game Protection Fund must be increased by from $350,000 to $500,000 during the next fiscal year. It is to meet its legislative obligations Director George R. Hogarth said, explaining the reasons for the increased costs of hunting and fishing licenses. Four hunting and fishing licenses were increased in cost by the Legislature last spring.

In previous years, Director Hogarth said, the General Fund of the State carried the entire cost of forest fire control. This year the Game Fund must pay $100,000 toward the general operations of this work and must pay in addition, up to $125,000 for impressed labor.

The annual appropriation of approximately $175,000 paid in the past from the General Fund for fish propagation and development, was discontinued this year, and the entire cost of this work has been charged against the Game Protection Fund.

A law was enacted last spring requiring the Game Protection Fund to pay to counties and townships, ten cents an acre per year, on all lands dedicated to conservation projects. Only state parks under 1,000 acres are exempt from this charge. This will result in about $80,000 being paid in this manner from the Game Fund.

In all, between $350,000 and $500,000 additional funds will be required during the present fiscal year to defray these new obligations, Director Hogarth said.

The deer license was increased from $2.50 to $3.50 with the specific requirement that $1.50 from each license will be devoted to the purchase, maintenance and development of game refuges and adjacent public hunting grounds.

Changed costs of other licenses are:

Resident, small game license, from $1.25 to $1.75.

Resident trout license, from $1.00 to $1.75.

Non-resident angler's license from $3.00 to $4.00.

Muskrat trapping license (20 traps), from $1.00 to $2.00.

COL. PEARSON'S WAR RECORD

The Free Press for some time has been publishing photographs together with stories of Michigan's World War heroes. In a recent issue pictures of Col. LeRoy Pearson, one taken at the time of the war, and also a recent photograph of that gentleman appeared, together with a story of his life, since entering the army. As Colonel Pearson is so well known in Grayling, through his position as quartermaster general and his regular summer visits to Grayling, this story will no doubt be of interest to many. It is as follows:

A Michigan soldier, schooled in all the grand traditions of the United States Army, is Col. LeRoy Pearson, quartermaster general in charge of all army property in the State.

He entered the army in 1924 as captain of Company C, 33rd Michigan Infantry, and in 1916 was sent with his company to Mexico, where he remained on the border until the following spring. When war was declared his company was stationed at Fort Wayne to guard the Michigan Central Tunnel, the Waterworks and other Government property.

Later, in 1917, when the Custer site was chosen for a camp, his company was sent there for guard work. While the buildings were being constructed he was the first commanding officer of the camp. That autumn he was transferred to Waco, Tex., as assistant operations officer of the staff of Gen. W. G. Haan, of the 32nd Division. He remained that post overseas throughout the war.

He was awarded the Croix de Guerre with the gilt star by the French Government on March 14, 1919. The medal was issued from the General Headquarters of the French Armies of the East, with the following citation:

"As liaison officer with the 10th French Army during operations to the north of Soissons from Aug. 28 to Sept. 6, 1918, by his accurate judgment and constant initiative, he maintained the communications not only with the organizations of the division, but also with the French Corps and divisions on our right and left. He also displayed much courage and coolness in the accomplishment of his duties."

Returning to Michigan after the Armistice, Col. Pearson took his present position as quartermaster general. He is in charge of all State-owned armories, rifle ranges, Camp Grayling, and also is chief of staff of the 32nd Division and disbursing officer of the State.

He now resides in Lansing with his wife, Mrs. Bertha G. Pearson, and their son, Charles B., 17 years old.

Faculty Wins In Red Hot Series.

Few Casualties, Burns Wrenches Hip, Cushman Suffers Blow To Pride In Second Game.

In the first engagement Cushman hurled for the faculty and "Lefty" Sheehy occupied the mound for the students. The game was close—the score being 9-8 in favor of the "Profs."

"Wop" Lookos distinguished himself by snugging out three home runs.

The second engagement was the Waterloo for the "Learned Gentlemen," "Gabby's Kids" beating them in an exciting battle. Mr. Cushman, the pilot and star twirler for the faculty, "blew up" in the third inning but regained his composure in the 4th. The students had him going when they brought in three runs. Lookos was the only casualty. He crashed thru the fence back of first base after making a desperate sprint on a bunt he laid down.

The third game to decide the series was also an exciting affair. "Gabby" Miller, pilot of the students, having prophesied an easy victory was sadly disappointed when the "Kids" lost to the "Profs" with a score of 4-1; Sheehy bringing in the lone run with a brilliant homer in the fifth inning. He hit a high and inside ball which proves that "Lefty" has a real "eye" to connect with such a pitch and make it a homer. Mr. Burns, the million dollar catcher of the faculty team, suffered a wrenched hip and walks with a pronounced limp but is "doing business as usual." Both Mr. Cushman and "Gabby" say that their teams are ready to do battle again with promises of better games than ever, so we look forward to some exciting tangles.

The latest report is that Connie Mack is attempting to buy Cushman to strengthen (?) his pitching staff. —The Sports Editor.

UTILIZATION OF PETROLEUM

It is probable that no other raw material enters so many fields of utilization as petroleum.

Crude oil, subjected to a series of refining processes, releases gas that in the source of fuel gas, carbon black, and alcohols. The first products of distillation are naphthas and refined oils, which yield gasoline, commercial solvents, and cleaning fluids. The refined oils include kerosene, illuminating oil, stove and tractor oil, furnace oil, etc.

The intermediate distillates produce gas oil and absorber oil, both of which have important industrial uses, and likewise yield gasoline, by the cracking process, and Diesel oil. From the heavy distillates come waxes, lubricating and medicinal oils and similar products.

But the use of petroleum does not end here. The residues of distillation produce other things, road oil, asphalt, pitches and cokes.

A great many of the commodities we use in our daily life, from candy to medicine, are made up in part of petroleum products. The oil industry has proven itself, time and again, to be a cornerstone of modern civilization.

A FEDERAL GAS TAX

The proposal to establish a federal tax on gasoline should center the attention of the public on the whole problem of gas taxation.

If a federal tax were levied, it would mean that eventually the total gas tax might be even doubled. Already the states have gone farther than is economically feasible in burdening the motorist. The average tax is now slightly in excess of four cents a gallon, and rates of five and six cents are becoming more common. In one state an eight-cent rate was defeated only by quick and decisive action on the part of the public. And rumblings of ten-cent rates are heard in the distances.

No other necessary and generally used commodity is taxed so highly. Special and class taxes are always bad—and when allowed to grow to excessive proportions, they become economic monstrosities.

INSTALL WATER METERS

Fred D. Keister, writing for the Ionia News, says:

"Mayor Carl Cox, of Charlotte, decided recently to put all users of city water on the meter system. In changing over to the new system, the mayor discovered that many homes were not connected with a meter, and that the amount of water used was a matter of conscience with the householder, some of them being suspected of not only taking the usual Saturday night bath, but a couple extra ablutions during the week. The new meters are expected to bring the city back to the Eskimo days of the early Nineties, when one plunge in the soapsuds during the week was considered ultra, no matter how dense the odor of perspiration."

They say that cupid strikes the match.
That sets the world aglow;
But where does cupid strike the match?
That's what we want to know.

WINTER SPORTS BEE

The Winter Sports committee says they will need a lot of help in order to get things started. There is the old take-off platform to be transferred, clearing to do and a lot of other things.

Be There Sunday Afternoon.
There will be a bee Sunday afternoon and everyone, young and old, is requested to be at the new location, near the National Guard cemetery hill at 1:30 p. m. and do his bit. Come out and bring a crew with you. A lot of help can be used. Please don't expect George to do this; keep Sunday afternoon open and be on the job. Every bit of assistance will be appreciated.

A little cooperation on the part of the people will mean that Grayling will have the greatest winter-sport layout in Michigan and, we fully believe, it will some day rival Lake Placid itself.

DEPT. OF STATE STATE NEWS BULLETIN

Durability of copper automobile license plates under actual driving conditions, is to be tested out by the Department of State.

Several sets of 1931 plates with a copper base have been made, and they are to be used on department cars. If found to be feasible and economical, the 1932 license plates are to be made of Michigan-mined copper.

Applications for drivers licenses under the 1931 act, are being received at the rate of about 7,000 a day. The department is able to handle over twice this number of applications. All persons whose original driver's license was issued prior to Jan. 1, 1928 must re-register and secure a new license before Nov. 1.

The form and size of the Public Acts of 1931 are meeting with the approval of officials and attorneys in all parts of the state. The Department has received many letters, commending the fact that in type setup and in size the new volume is identical with the Compiled Laws of 1929.

The Abrams Aerial Survey Corp. of Lansing was the first company to secure a state airplane license under the 1931 act requiring registration of planes. Art Davis, Michigan speed and stunt pilot, secured license number 6.

Although the new act becomes effective Sept. 15, but 10 planes and three manufacturers have secured registrations and the state department of aeronautics has been notified. The 1931 act says all Michigan-owned planes and outstate commercial planes cannot be flown in Michigan without paying a registration and weight tax.

Local Happenings

Miss Ellen Gothro entertained Leo Neff of Mt. Pleasant over the week end.

Mrs. Jens Eilerson of Detroit has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Madsen.

Come to the Hard Times dancing party at the Hayloft Saturday night. Special favors for those coming in costume.

Mrs. McGuire Dupree and granddaughter Louise Dupree returned home Monday from Bay City after being there for a few days.

Mrs. John Dye has returned home after being at Kalkaska owing to the illness and death of her mother, Mrs. Charles McClelland. Mrs. Dye has been gone from home more or less during the summer owing to her mother's condition.

More new fall ladies slippers have arrived at Olson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Roberts entertained the former's two brothers, Fred and Louis Roberts and their families of Reed City at their cottage "Greycoats," Houghton Lake over the week end.

Henry Jordan and Ted Callahan attended a meeting of the executive board of the Railway Maintenance of Way Employees Union of the M. C. R. R. that was held in Detroit Tuesday. Mr. Jordan is president of the local branch and Ted Callahan secretary-treasurer.

The new styles are different. Call Saturday, Oct. 10 at Cooley's Gift Shop and we will show you the latest dresses for the coming season. The school is enjoying their annual inter-class activity today with fun for everyone. The flag race between the freshmen and sophomores is sure to be a battle as the rope tying contests between the Juniors and Seniors. This evening a banquet will be enjoyed by the various classes in the dining room of Michelson Memorial church.

The Rialto Theatre will present the "Five Star Final" tonight and Friday night. This is Edward G. Robinson's "Masterpiece of Masterpieces." Power of the press in the hands of a merciless scandal monger. He writes "finis" to life and love with a devastating smear of crimson ink. A woman's soul crucified and sold for two cents. Here is the last word in heart-pounding drama. Sensation of all sensations!

Rosecommon State Bank failed to open its doors last Saturday morning. Orlando F. Barnes, president of the bank, it is reported, assured the depositors that if they would be patient that every creditor would be repaid his money in full. These bank failures around the country are disastrous and cause a lot of distress. However we believe that the Rosecommon bank will do as Mr. Barnes said; we certainly hope so.

Mrs. Marius Hanson was honored with a farewell party given last Thursday afternoon by St. Mary's Altar society at the rectory. Bridge was enjoyed, Mrs. B. J. Callahan holding the high score and Miss Irene McKay won the consolation prize. In appreciation of Mrs. Hanson, who has been such an ardent worker in the society she was presented with a nice gift. Mrs. Hanson gave unsparringly of her time and efforts and made an excellent leader, having been president of the Society for many years.

The fall days have been so wonderful that many have enjoyed picnics, drives and out-of-door parties this season more than usual. Miss Olaf Michelson was hostess at a very delightful luncheon party on Division Hill at the Military reservation Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock. Later in the afternoon the guests went to the summer home of the hostess for bridge, prizes being received by Miss Margrethe Bauman, Mrs. Marius Hanson and Mrs. Terrace Wallace. Other guests were Mrs. Oscar Hanson, Mrs. H. A. Bauman, Mrs. Ernest Larson, Miss Lucille Hanson, Mrs. Leo Alexander, Mrs. Fred Alexander, Mrs. Louis Jensen, Mrs. Bern Hanson and Mrs. Oscar Schumann.

The remains of Charles Douglas, former old resident of Grayling, were brought to Grayling for burial Tuesday, services being held at Michelson Memorial church, with interment in Elmwood cemetery. Mr. Douglas passed away at Memphis, Mich. Monday after being ill for some time with cancer. Surviving are his widow, one son Lorne Douglas, Saginaw and a daughter Mrs. A. J. Pearsall, Plymouth, also his aged mother Mrs. Joseph Douglas of Lovells. The deceased was a brother of the late T. E. Douglas.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. McGuire Dupree was badly damaged by fire early Monday morning. Mr. Dupree who was alone in the house was awakened suddenly at about 3:00 o'clock and found his bedroom filled with smoke. Getting out of bed he groped about in the darkness and on going out of doors found the house was on fire. In trying to turn off the electric meter he badly blistered his right hand. The fire department responded in fine manner to the alarm and it wasn't long after they arrived that the fire was under control, however it had such a start when discovered that the building and contents were badly damaged. However both were covered by insurance. This property was formerly the home of Mr. and Mrs. David LaMotte for years, they selling out to Mr. Dupree a couple of years ago. The Duprees had resided in Grayling previously and had returned here to make their home, coming from Bay City.

DEPOSITORS DESIRE AUDIT

The meeting of the depositors of the Bank of Grayling, now closed, that was called to be held at the School auditorium last Friday night, was well attended. Practically every seat in the auditorium was occupied. Attorney Merle F. Nellist opened the meeting and said that it was called for the purpose of finding out whether or not the depositors wanted to spend some money for the purpose of securing an audit of the Bank's affairs to find out what became of the money they had deposited.

Mr. Nellist was elected chairman of the meeting and Axel Peterson, secretary. Paul Ziebell, Otto Nelson, Carl Sorenson, Harold McNeven and A. W. Hunter were appointed tellers. Tony Nelson was called to the front and he explained that he, Ernie Babbitt and H. A. Bauman had had legal counsel in regard to the bank failure. Attorney Monaghan of Detroit explained that it was his opinion that "Mr. Hanson hadn't done anything wrong, except a breach of trust." "The only thing that could be done," he said, "is to audit the books of the bank and find out if he had used any of the depositors' money."

Whereupon the following committee was elected for the purpose of making an investigation: Esbern Hanson, Tony Nelson and Nels Corwin. On the motion as to whether or not an audit should be made, 173 voted yes, and 14 voted no. Mr. Nellist was elected as attorney for filing the petition in Circuit court. This no doubt will come before the next term of court which will be Oct. 18th.

AGED LADY PASSED AWAY

Mrs. Walter Waite, age 77 years, passed away at the home of her daughter Mrs. Burwell Griffith Thursday, October 1, after an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Waite came to Grayling with the Griffith family this spring. She had previously visited in Grayling with her daughter Mrs. Frank Cochran and her son Elmer Waite. Her husband preceded her death on April 3, 1920.

The funeral of the deceased was held Sunday afternoon at the Griffith home, Rev. H. J. Salmon of Michelson Memorial church officiating at the service. Interment was in Elmwood cemetery. The services were attended by a large number of relatives and friends.

Surviving the deceased besides those above mentioned is a daughter Mrs. Alice Sullivan of Saginaw, twelve grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

(Written by Mrs. Ida Welch of Lupton)

Dear Mother has gone and left us here,
No more will we hear her greetings of cheer,
But we know she will welcome us when we come,
To the end of life's race and reach our home.

Dear Mother we know you rest in peace.

In the Land of Joy where all troubles cease
But the thought of life's trials will all be over
When we rest in peace on that Heavenly Shore

BOWELS need watching

Let Dr. Caldwell help whenever your child is feverish or upset; or has caught cold.

His simple prescription will make that bilious, headachy, cross boy or girl comfortable, happy, well in just a few hours. It soon restores the bowels to healthy regularity. It helps "break-up" a cold by keeping the bowels free from all that sickening mucus waste.

You have a famous doctor's word for this laxative. Dr. Caldwell's record of having attended over 3500 births without the loss of one mother or baby is believed unique in American medical history.

Get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin from your druggist and have it ready. Then you won't have to worry when any member of your family is headachy, bilious, gassy or constipated. Syrup Pepsin is good for all ages. It sweetens the bowels; increases appetite—makes digestion more complete.

BETTER in Europe, worse in Asia, little change in America. So might be summarized the political and economic weather report of the week for the world. First place among the events in Europe goes to the friendly visit to Berlin of Premier Laval and Foreign Minister Briand of France. They were in the German capital two days, and out of their conversation with President Von Hindenburg, Chancellor Brüning and Foreign Minister Curius grew a permanent mixed commission to pool the economic activities of the two nations. This body will be consultative and will include both employers and employees, and according to the official communiqué its general purpose is "to fight the economic crisis and to call for co-operation from other nations whenever necessary. This action will be the first step to co-operation which has become the need of the hour and in which all are called to participate."

When one considers that France and Germany have been bitter rivals for centuries and often active enemies, this result of the Berlin visit is remarkable. The commercial entente that is being forced may well make future wars between the two nations impossible. The commission will seek to promote trade and export agreements that will bring on a joint search for new markets. Its sponsors, aware that no increase of customs tariffs is expected and that no third party is aimed at by the pact. The immediate object is co-operation in finance, industry, shipping and aviation.

When President Von Hindenburg was told the French statesmen were to call on him, the old warrior at first balked because his name is still on the allied list of World War "criminals." Finally Brüning and the French ambassador, Andre Francois-Poncet, persuaded him to receive the visitors, and the meeting passed off without friction.

Premier Laval, when he comes to Washington in October, will submit the Franco-German agreement to President Hoover. It was initiated in Berlin that Chancellor Brüning also may come over to see Mr. Hoover and lay before him Germany's viewpoint on war debts and reparations.

TRUCE in armaments for one year. Beginning November 1, is the present aim of the League of Nations, disarmament committee. Modifying the Italian proposition to meet the objections of the majority of the league members, the committee adopted this resolution:

"The assembly requests the governments invited to the disarmament conference (to be held in Geneva next February) to prepare for this great aim by means of an armaments truce and accordingly requests the council (of the league) to urge the governments convened to said conference to give proof of their earnest desire for a successful issue of efforts to insure and organize peace, and without prejudicing the decision of the conference or the programs of proposals submitted to it by each government, to refrain from any measure involving an increase in their armaments."

It likewise requests the council to ask the governments to state before November 1 whether they are prepared for a period of one year, as from that date, to accept this truce in armaments."

OUT in the Far East the dove of peace was getting hard usage. Prospects for warfare between Japan and China were little lessened by the efforts of President Hoover and the decided lobby dolings of the League of Nations council. Japan, through its league delegate, M. K. Yoshizawa, turned down flatly the plan for an international commission to inquire into the facts in the Manchurian row, the delegates' words being: "Foreign participants in the discussion are useless and any government does not think it necessary to call in outsiders." He asserted Japan desired to withdraw its troops to the railway zone as soon as it was convinced its civilian population would be safe without their protection, and added that Japan did not want war with China.

Neither does the Chinese government want war, apparently, but the Chinese people, especially the students, are clamoring for hostilities and for a nation-wide boycott of Japan as a preliminary. Because they thought Foreign Minister C. T. Wang had failed in the effort to get help from the League of Nations, the students in Nanking invaded the foreign office and attacked Mr. Wang, injuring him severely. After this outrage the minister carried out his long cherished desire to resign. Alfred Sze was appointed to succeed him. The young Chinese, gathered in big mobs, assailed Japanese civilians in various cities, the worst of these outbreaks being in Hongkong. The British garrison there was called out and charged the mobs repeatedly, killing and wounding a number of the rioters. Throughout the country the students were organizing and volunteering to serve at the front against Japan. Meanwhile the Canton rebel government continued its negotiations for the union of all factions to meet the emergency.

Philosophy

Philosophy is called the mother of the sciences, the term meaning literally "love of wisdom." The early Greeks considered philosophy as general culture embracing all knowledge. With the broadening of scientific research, however, it was necessary to classify the branches, such as physics, metaphysics, logic, psychology, etc. Thales, a Greek, was the earliest philosopher of record, living about 600 B. ## Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO.

Thursday, October 8, 1908

Born—October 2nd, to Mr. and Mrs. James McNeven, a daughter.

A welcome rain reached us Tuesday afternoon.

Arrest—Michelson is drawn as Juror from this county for the October term of the U. S. Court at Bay City.

Last Friday evening Oct. 2, the Kit Kat club of Grayling was organized for charitable purposes.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Sitas-Boddy at Hardgrove, July 2nd, a daughter.

H. A. Bauman is home from his U. P. lumber camps for this week to visit family and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rosenkilde have gone to Fenton for a short visit and will visit their old home in Denmark that they left 27 years ago.

Dr. Tomlinson has moved his residence to the pleasant suite of rooms over the postoffice, which will make it more pleasant for him, and for his callers, as his office is adjoining.

An Otsego county circuit court jury has awarded $3,000 to Fletcher Battered, a brakeman on the Boyne City, Gaylord & Alpena railroad, for the loss of a part of one hand while coupling cars. Another jury has awarded a $5,000 verdict to Grant Duggan, an engineer on the same road, who was badly scalded in a wreck.

The new Opera House and Odd Fellows hall is enclosed and the lathes are at work inside. It is a fine structure and an ornament to the village.

Nearly all the corn in the county is safely in shock. Some pieces were injured by the frosts of last month, and all by the drought so there will not be a full average crop.

The pump house at the cemetery was broken open Saturday night and several articles stolen, and the engine broken. The boys are known and will probably pay the penalty.

A spasm of crime seems to have swept over the county during the last week, for which four warrants have been issued and two complaints are waiting investigation.

Henry Moon of Beaver Creek was in town Tuesday with one hand profusely bandaged, the result of letting a knife slip into it. It will not be pleasant for corn husking.

Last Friday the bandsaw in the big mill broke while running at full speed and went entirely through the wood and steel roof, leaving a part of it on the roof. No cause for it can be assigned. Fortunately no one was hurt.

John Baer, who came this year from near Medina, in Lenawee county to Beaver Creek, carried out a big load of windows and doors for his new house in the farm near Mr. Annis which looks like permanence. He is one of the kind we are looking for.

A large siver on a plank being sawed in the big mill Monday morning.

ing, sprung against the bandsaw in such a way as to throw it from the pulley and in falling struck the sawyer, Lars Nelson and terribly lacerated his arm. Though the injury is severe it is thought the arm will be saved.

The St. Helen Development Co. had over one hundred of its Angora goats escape from the big pasture at St. Helen. They have strayed south below West Branch and north above Pere Cheney. The company has men out picking up the strays, and will pay an adequate reward to anyone who will corral any they find and notify the company at St. Helen, or will be very thankful to anyone sending information that will lead to their recovery.

Grayling High School played her first game of foot ball with the West Branch team, at that city, last Friday, and won easily—8 to 0. An attempt was made Monday, to raise enough money to bring Dexter High of Bay City here, Friday, but our people seemed too much interested in the "Tigers" to hear the plea. Perhaps now the base ball pennant is won we can bring them at a later date.

Two or three young boys amused themselves Monday night by stealing horses for a ride. N. Gison's and Harry Ward's horse was taken from their barns and two bridles from N. Michelson's barn. Olson's driving bridle was taken and the reins cut off for riding lengths, and Michelson's carriage whip cut down for riding. Mr. Ward and officer Nolan were on their trail and this side of Fredric they met them on their way back. The youngsters slid from the horses and skidded into the woods, but were home in the morning. They could not have realized that they are liable for a term in prison. No arrests have yet been made.

B. Hanson brought us a potato from John Rasmussen's farm at Johannesburg, last week, which was as perfect as could be grown and weighed one pound and six ounces. It is a new variety, cream colored skin but perfectly white within. It is a heavy yielder but late. Mr. Rasmussen will have as large an average probably as any man in that county this year. His orchard has begun bearing and is in fine condition promising an abundant yield. Whatever he undertakes he does well.

DID YOU KNOW

That the radio equipment of the U. S. S. Akron, world's largest dirigible, is the most powerful ever installed in any aircraft? It weighs less than 1,000 pounds.

That an anchor of a modern battleship weighs about ten tons, and each link of the chain weighs about 100 pounds?

That the U. S. Navy has had but four fleet actions, and in each one captured or destroyed every enemy vessel?

That the above information is furnished by the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, 710 Lawyers Building, 645 Randolph Street, Detroit, Michigan?

To make corn custard, mix 1 can, or 2 cups of fresh corn, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 2 eggs, 1 1/2 cups milk, and 1 tablespoon sugar for baked custard. Pour into a casserole or earthenware baking dish and set in a pan of boiling water. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until set, or about 1 1/2 hours.

An Outdoor Supper

WHO doesn't want to eat his supper under the shade of a gnarled old tree which makes a sheltered spot on the top of a cliff above the sea, or perhaps just at home in his own garden. And what fun there is in such a picnic out in the cool twilight air with the setting sun decorating the horizon for your delectation!

Here is a menu for such an outdoor supper:

Camp Baked Potatoes and Sausages
Ham Salad Sandwiches
Broiled and Buttered Potatoes
Whole Tomatoes and Mayonnaise
Pineapple and Cherry Pie
Lemonade

Baked Potatoes and Sausages:
With an apple core cut a hole through the center of as many potatoes as desired. Put a canned Vienna sausage in each hole. Place the potatoes in a frying pan balanced on rocks above hot embers. Cover, and put embers on the lid of the pan. Bake until done.

Pineapple and Cherry Pie: Run four slices of pineapple and one cup of canned—sour—pitted—cherries through the meat grinder, add two tablespoons flour and one-half egg, beaten, and cook in a saucepan until slightly thickened. Pour into a small pie tin lined with pastry, cover with upper crust and bake, having oven hot (450° F.) for the first five minutes, then moderate (375°) until done. To measure half an egg, beat the egg slightly, measure the number of tablespoons, and take half that number.

The Navy's new dirigible, Akron, has an elaborate telephone system consisting of 17 phones, a switchboard, and three miles of wire. The switchboard will be operated by the officer of the deck. In an emergency all phones can be rung at once, and the captain can talk or give orders to all strategic points at one time. This will not only be a distinct advantage in battle of simulated battle conditions, but also in landing and taking off.—Navy News.

SILVER USE GROWS

The low price of silver has stimulated its use in industry. It has, as well, resulted in increased sale of silverware and silver jewelry. The use of silver solders is expanding, and silver is being used in some form in manufacture of airplanes, turbines, radios, electric refrigerators, chemical apparatus and similar products.

While this will not immediately solve the silver problem, or bring the metal back from the depths to a fair value, it all aids in stabilizing markets for the future through new and valuable uses for the metal.

MORE LAWS, MORE CONTEMPT

"The growing contempt for law is attributable in large measure to a mistaken zeal for more and ever more laws," said Governor Ritchie of Maryland a short time ago.

It is refreshing to hear this though echoed by a high public official. Too few of them are sufficiently candid—or courageous—to do so. But almost all who have studied the crime problem have come to the same conclusion. We are a nation of law-breakers largely because we are a nation of law-makers. We have abrogated human liberties—and crime has been increasing on a greater scale than in any other supposedly civilized country. We have passed laws which have acted as boomerangs and have in actual practice benefitted the criminal class which they were supposed to suppress—such as the various anti-revolver bills in effect in several states.

We cannot shut our eyes to the fact that America is a lawless nation. In almost every great city authorities are all but powerless against the depredations of a well-organized, well-financed underworld. Simpler and fewer laws, more justice and less litigation, surer punishment for offenders—in that direction lies victory for society in its war against the criminal class.

Farm Notes

Tells Easy Method For Canning Fowls

Glass or tin cans provide housewives with an easy means of cutting budgets, according to Muriel Dundas, extension specialist at Michigan State College, who recommends that the low producers in the farm poultry flock be converted into delicious future meals when preserved by canning.

Canning chicken requires little effort, and, when properly done, converts old hens into tender, well-flavored meat. The fowl is drawn by opening the bird the entire length with a cut along the ribs through the thin flesh between the back and the breast.

The cut is continued to the pelvic bone and around the vent and the entire side is opened so the entrails can be removed easily.

After the legs and wings have been removed, the skin is opened from the wing opening toward the head and the windpipe, crop, and gullet are taken out. The shoulder blades come out easily if a cut is made across the back underneath them and they are broken off at the joint.

Remove the gall-bladder from the liver without breaking it, and cut through the thick portion of the gizzard to remove the sack. The giblets are packed in a separate can to avoid darkening the other meat and changing its flavor.

To pick, place one thigh, one drumstick, two wings, and the neck and ribs in the center of the can. Cover with the back and remaining pieces, and two teaspoonsful of salt, but no liquid. Put rubber jar ring in place and partially seal jar. If using tin cans, exhaust the air in cans by placing them in boiling water for seven minutes and then seal.

Seal the jars and place them in the pressure cooker, leave petcock open and process for one hour at 15 pounds pressure. Tin cans may be cooled in cold water.

This is the time of year to watch out for trichinosis, the disease caused by small parasites known as trichinae which may occur in pork and pork products. Cook pork thoroughly. Don't eat it raw.

Some beef-cattle breeders think that too much silage harms the breeding qualities of a bull. A bull weighing about 1,400 pounds should keep in excellent breeding condition during winter if fed a ration of about 30 pounds of silage, 10 pounds of good-quality alfalfa or other legume hay, and 12 pounds of grain mixture.

It is a good plan to whitewash the dairy barn once or twice a year. To make a disinfectant whitewash, dilute 1 1/2 quarts of commercial lime-sulphur with about 3 gallons of water, and add 3 tablespoons of common salt, previously dissolved in a pint of water. To this solution, add, while stirring constantly, a lime cream made by mixing a heaping quart of good hydrated lime with water, or by slaking 2 1/2 pounds of fresh quicklime and straining through a wire fly screen.

Waterproofing canvas or duck makes it last about twice as long. Farmers' Bulletin 1197-F, Waterproofing and Millingproofing of Cotton Duck, which can be obtained from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., contains formulas and directions for waterproofing canvas or duck. The bulletin also says that sunlight is injurious to canvas and that the addition of lampblack or earth pigments to the waterproofing material lessens damage by the sun.

Promptness, thoroughness, and cleanliness are the three essentials in curing hides and skins, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Remove and salt the hide or skin as soon as the animal heat has escaped from it. In hot weather prompt salting is absolutely necessary. Use plenty of salt—at least 2 pounds of salt for every 3 pounds of hide or skin—and cover every part of the flesh side, smoothing out folds and wrinkles. Keep the hides and skins clean and use clean salt. Many defects in hides and skins result from the growth of bacteria and molds that feed on dirt, dung, blood, meat, or fat. If salt must be used more than once, clean it as well as possible.

Let the hides and skins cure in a place that is cool and water-tight. Don't cure them on a dirt floor. Calfskins need from 14 to 28 days to cure and cattle hides from 30 to 60 days. Sheepskins heat quickly and should be marketed within 5 or 6 days.

Potatoes stored in bulk in large bins need good ventilation, especially for the first three or four weeks. A cheap and convenient method for providing ventilation consists in the insertion of upright ventilating shafts at suitable intervals in the bin before filling it. These shafts may vary in size from 12 by 12 inches to 12 by 18 or 18 by 18 inches. Three-inch slat boards spaced 1 1/2 inches apart are nailed crosswise on four 2 by 3 inch uprights which form the framework and are of sufficient height to protrude above the stored potatoes. Such shafts spaced 6 to 8 feet apart serve as an outlet for the excess heat and moisture accumulation certain to occur in the first few weeks of storage and may prevent serious losses from storage rot.

One spoonful will neutralize at once most times its volume in acid. It is the right way, the quick, pleasant and efficient way to kill the excess acid. The stomach becomes sweet, the pain departs. You are happy again in five minutes. But don't depend on crude methods. Try the best way yet evolved in all the years of searching. That is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, the kind that the physicians prescribe. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

Indiana Town Has a Marrying Trust

Here's one of the five marrying aquirers of Jeffersonville, Ind., looking for business outside the "marriage parlor" where he and four other experts in tying the hymeneal knot have formed a trust to combat the current depression. They have been able to boost the price of a marriage from $2.50 in 28, in addition to reducing the extent of their labor from 24-hour duty a day to two days a week. The year's business is estimated at $25,000. The "parlor" is situated at the Indiana approach to the new $2,000,000 Louisville municipal bridge across the Ohio river.

"Kentucky's" Real Meaning
That "Kentucky" means "dun" and "blood" ground is a common but erroneous rendering. The Cherokee word "Kentucke" means prairie.—Washington Star.

Aches and PAINS!

When you take Bayer Aspirin you are sure of two things. It's sure relief, and it's harmless. Those tablets with the Bayer cross do not hurt the heart. Take them whenever you suffer from:

Headaches Neuritis
Colds Neuralgia
Sore Throat Lumbago
Rheumatism Toothache

When your head aches—from any cause—when a cold has settled in your joints, or you feel those deep-down pains of rheumatism, sciatica, or lumbago, take Bayer Aspirin and get real relief. If the package says Bayer, it's genuine. And genuine Bayer Aspirin is safe.

Aspirin is the trade-mark of Bayer manufacture of monoaceticacidester of salicylic acid.

Inside Information

Plain bacon sandwiches can be put together in a very few minutes when time is short and other fillings are unavailable.

The kitchen is, above all else, a place to prepare and serve food. Limit it to this use if possible, and arrange for laundering and such work to be done in another place.

A milk bottle makes a fine stand for drying and sunning a dish mop.

Sauerkraut can be preserved by heating it in a water bath until the center of the jar shows a temperature of 160 degrees F., and then sealing the jars tightly.

Never turn electricity off or on when you are standing on a wet or even a damp floor. If you do so, the current is likely to pass through your body. Also avoid turning light switches on or off when standing in a wet place, like a freshly mopped floor, or when your hands are wet.

Roasts from the so-called tender cuts of meat are better cooked with out water. In case there is not very much fat, get an extra piece of suet and skewer it to the top. Place the meat in a very hot oven to sear on the outside. Then reduce the temperature and cook slowly until done.

Cut raw potato will sometimes remove a rust spot from black silk of firm weave. The thin film of starch left when the potato has dried can be brushed off. This treatment leaves a spot on all but black materials.

Corn meal may be substituted for a part or all of the wheat flour in many recipes for quick breads, muffins, griddlecakes, and cookies, using a scant cup of meal for a level cup of flour, baking more slowly and longer, and dropping rather than rolling out biscuits.

Why not have Tuesday for wash day? That gives more time on Monday to pick up the Sunday newspapers, put the books away, and otherwise straighten the house, as well as to mend necessary rips and tears, remove unusual stains, and put to soak any clothing that needs it. Early Tuesday morning a good star can be made without hurrying.

Cottage cheese is good in a great many ways. Serve it with rich cream and a little salt, or with sugar, and cream or whole milk. Try combining it with pears, peaches, or other fresh fruits; raisins, cut dates, or figs; brown sugar, maple sugar or sirup, honey, jam, or marmalade; or chopped nuts. You can mix cottage cheese with broken nut meats, chopped pimientos, finely cut green peppers, diced cucumbers, or other crisp vegetables. Horse-radish, onion juice, and parsley make a good combination with cottage cheese.

A pillow may be washed just as it is, but a better method is as follows: Transfer the feathers to a larger cotton bag by sewing the edges of its opening to the opening of the tick. Shake the feathers from one to the other. Sew up the opening and wash in lukewarm water, using a neutral soap. Rinse well. Press as much of the water out as possible and place on a cloth in the sun. Turn often an beat up from time to time. Wash the tick separately, and starch it on the inside with a stiff starch mixture, applied with a brush or sponge. Transfer the feathers again when dry.

MICHIGAN AFFAIRS

BY A. H. GANSER

One Look Back—But Two Ahead. That is the timely word that comes to America from Silas H. Strawn, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, today. Business depressions seem to come periodically, however touch the fundamental economic reasons underlying them may differ from time to time. Hard work and self reliance have always overcome them, and what is more, laid foundations for new and increased prosperity. That is just the sort of business message America needs in this hour. The Rotarian for October is full of similar timely business observations. For no matter what the underlying causes, they can be taught us to beware of similar economic and social errors in the future. One look backward, cannot fail to be helpful in our future business guidance. But far more helpful will be the two looks forward. Far more helpful will be renewed faith and understanding of our own favored business situation. We are in truth a self contained and self sustaining continent. Germany with its seventy million people could be lost in our state of Texas. England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales with their 46 million people would find room to spare in our one state of New York. France, Italy and the rest of western Europe have similar congested populations, with problems of food, clothing and other life necessities. In all these life necessities we have enough and to spare. So as a nation we are spared those day to day living worries. China has a wall for hundreds of miles to keep out invading hordes from the north and west, seeking happier climates, slaves and accumulation of savings through the centuries by industrious and thrifty Chinamen. Yet behind that old wall, Chinamen are starving to day. Our own America might have such a wall, and be tolerable, comfortable and happy, shut off from all the world.

Our Fortunate America. Many of the things we now import could be raised and produced in our own land, should this be found necessary. Climate and cheap coolie labor have until now made their importation more advantageous than producing them here at home. But we could produce our own rubber and the like should we find it desirable. Then there are the great American industries keyed up to supply all our own needs, and have much left over for export to other countries. These exporters naturally want their customers abroad to sell us something in exchange, to maintain export trade activity. All of which is good business for America. But we proved in the sudden crisis of the World war, how really self sustaining we can be as a nation. Overnight our dyestuffs and chemical supply was cut off from Germany, which up to that hour had a sort of monopoly on these necessities, backed by patent rights and secret processes. In a very short time America developed a dye and chemical industry all its own. The Dow Chemical Company at Midland is a living example of that World war exigency and expansion. Two years after the great war started, American dye and chemical industries had been developed to a point, where they could produce the poison gas and other wartime chemicals, in addition to meeting the home demand for their products. Many other daily necessities coming to us from abroad, cut off by the World war naval blockade, were forthwith supplied by American genius in field and farm; laboratory, shop and factory. That is an object lesson coming out of the World war, well worth remembering. Then in this hour of pessimism and retrenchment, it will be well for American business, to remember the high tide of prosperity during that same destructive World war. Wages were high and everybody was spending money more freely than ever before. Proving once again how self contained we are as a nation, even when war blockades cut us off from some of our best customers.

American Living Standards. President Hoover is quite right in asking that wage scales be maintained in this hour on all government contract work, in order to keep up as far as possible, the American standard of living. Contractors are expected to make their competitive bids with that sound business principle in mind. High wages increase the purchasing power of the working people. We glory in the courage of American railroads, who have been very hard hit by changing conditions over which they have little or no control. They have lost most of the short haul business to motor trucks. The nation wide good roads movement and Michigan's motor industry have created most of this railroad competition. Yet always America must have its railroads for long hauls and heavy materials. Quite different apparently is the attitude of our American steel business. They appear to have a clear cut monopoly in this country. Yet they are among the first to cut wages. The law of supply and demand does not seem to enter into their steel problems in America. Then why cut wages? They surely add to reduced purchasing power by their work reductions. That hurts their standard of living and adds to unemployment. Idle men make more idle money. Under consumption makes for over production. This vicious circle adds to our American business depression, inevitably. And so in the last analysis it will hurt the American steel trust, along with every other American business enterprise. Wage reductions in this hour inevitably become boomerangs, finally hurting those who act in a panic. President Hoover is quite

TOP O' MICHIGAN POTATO SHOW

PREMIER POTATO GROWERS CONTEST

The Premier Potato Growers Contest held in connection with the Ninth Annual Top O' Michigan Potato Show at Gaylord October 28, 29 and 30, is attracting unusual attention this year, according to Mr. J. J. Bird, potato specialist at the Michigan State College, who has charge of this contest.

Each of the five district potato shows offers $25.00 to a state fund to pay the expenses of the state winner on a trip to some potato producing section outside the state. Each of the five district shows pick their winner who competes in the state contest at East Lansing during farmers week.

In addition to representing the Top O' Michigan district at the state show, the local winner will receive a prize amounting to $25.00.

The contest is based on the production of five acres, and winner judged on yield, quality and showmanship. All yields must be taken under the direct supervision of J. J. Bird, Dave Reiser of Wauke, Presque Isle County, won the local and state contest last year and made a trip to Pennsylvania, Washington, New York and Niagara Falls late in August.

Mr. Reiser will appear on the program of the Certified Seed Growers Luncheon on Wednesday of the show, and tell some of the experiences of his trip.

Benquet

The Annual Banquet of the Top O' Michigan Potato Show will be held in the 4-H club camp dining hall on Thursday evening, October 29th at 6:30 p. m.

An effort is being made to get Governor Wilbur Brucker to attend and give the main address. Professor Austin, head of the Liberal Arts Department of Michigan State College, will also appear on the program, as well as Mr. John Tucker of Ottawa, Canada, potato judge at the show.

Other luncheons and banquets include the Certified Seed Potato Growers Luncheon on Wednesday noon and the Junior Luncheon on Thursday noon.

AM. LEGION NOTES

BY A. H. GANSER

Just Fifteen Years Ago.

The first week in October, 1916, brought much bad news to the allies. Rumania had declared war on Germany on Aug. 27, 1916, and with 600,000 fresh troops, was expected to give the finishing blow to Austria. Now came word from neutral sources that a German army under Mackensen was threatening the Rumanians along the Danube river front, while another German army under Falkenhayn had defeated the first Rumanian army at Hermannstadt, and driven them across Vulcan Pass. A third German army was advancing against the third Rumanian army in the Transylvanian Alps. At the same time the Germans were holding their hard pressed trench lines against the British along the Somme river front, despite desperate attacks, week after week. French airplanes scouting east of Verdun had noticed German divisions being rushed out of that battle area, to help Austria at Gozitz on the Italian front. As a result the French attacked and won back some of the ground lost at Verdun in March, 1916. But on the whole, the Germans held their trench lines intact from Nienport in Belgium, through Ypres, Arras, Soissons, Rheims, Verdun, Nancy to the border of Switzerland. Despite terrific battle losses in northern France, the allies could show but little gain for 1916, as the season for field operations rapidly wasted. Italy had been hard pressed by the Austrians in the Trentino in early spring. The Russian attack in Volhynia and Bukovina in June, and the British attack on the Somme on July 1 had saved Italy from worse loss. Since then the Italians had made some gains on the Trieste front, but on the whole, the Austrian mountain defenses stood fast till winter came. Turkey continued to hold off the big Russian armies coming through Armenia and delay the British coming toward Jerusalem, all through the summer of 1916.

Rumania's Victory Drive Fails. The allies were prepared for this stout defense of more than 2,000 miles of trench battle line, on four war fronts. But they had expected big things from Gen. Sarraill and the allied armies at Salonika in Greece, and from more than half a million fresh troops coming from Rumania against the fast sinking Austria. The allies hoped to put Bulgaria out of the war, and so cut the German railway connections from Berlin to Baghdad in Mesopotamia. This done, Germany could no longer send arms, ammunition, men and war material to Asia Minor to help Turkish armies. And Berlin could no longer draw right in asking Americans to pay less attention to foreign stock markets and political maneuvers. Better pay more attention to stimulating that normal 80% of all our American business, which is our own home business. Let us keep as much of our 11% export business as possible. But first of all, let us aim to keep the American dollar doubly busy here at home.

NOW IT'S KING OF EAST MICHIGAN

King for a day! That's a thrill—but King for a year, with a reign over all of East Michigan, that's the thrill of a lifetime. Envied and worshipped by thousands; ask the queens how it feels. Then enter the East Michigan Tourist Association's "King" contest, the crown to be placed at the organization's annual meeting in Bay City, October 27, 1931.

Since the contest was announced, rumblings of activity have been heard from several counties but Iosco, always progressive, is the only county actually in the race. And Iosco's there with a bang endeavoring to enter two contestants through the nomination method although the rules state there can only be one contestant from each county. Both the Iosco prospects are over six feet and both are too bashful to let their names be known at this time. They are waiting for the nominations of other dashing gentlemen with whom to share the glaring spotlight.

It would seem that every county in East Michigan must be blessed with at least one youth with royal aspects. The rules committee of the association wishes it known that they feel that years do not matter, YOUTH is in the heart.

It may be that these men require in addition to the honor an incentive of intrinsic value. They should not be dismayed.

The Eastern Michigan Tourist Association hereby announces that it is looking for an automobile that will make a suitable prize for His Majesty, The King of East Michigan.

Here is a chance for enterprising dealers to advertise their wares through the publicity bound to attend this event. Surely the second hand car lots must be filled with vehicles from which could be chosen fitting token for "The King." The rules committee states that the vintage of the car doesn't matter, ALTHOUGH IT SEEMS TO hold a preference for the models of 1922. This is the first appeal to the automobile dealers of the territory. It is thought their response will deluge the general chairman with collections of nuts, bolts, gears and axles that in the aggregate will make automobiles. The general chairman just telephoned to say that he wants it thoroughly understood that the car chosen as a prize must be fully equipped with an engine and four wheels. He refused to go beyond that.

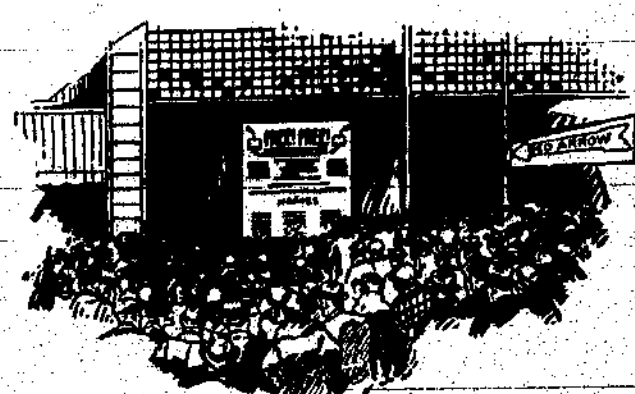

Plans are that this piece of automotive art will be displayed in the lobby of the Hotel Wenonah in Bay City for some days preceding the annual meeting.

The Midland Republican has already opened headquarters for the reception of nominations and other papers are following suit. Just mail your nominee to the newspaper in your territory and it will duly forward or mail it direct to the Log Office.

The rules committee has adopted a slogan for all those desiring to nominate prospective kings. It is borrowed from the Canadian Northwest Mounted, "Get your man."

The strategy was correct. For in October, 1918, it was Bulgaria that collapsed, quickly followed by Turkey. But that was two years later. In October, 1918, Bulgaria was able to stop Gen. Sarraill coming from Salonika toward Monastir in Macedonia, while sending another army against Rumania at Turktuki on the Danube. This Bulgarian army was reinforced by German shock troops from France and the northern Russian front. At the same time the 6th German army was attacking the Rumanians before Kronstadt. The defeat of the Rumanian first army had left the flank of this second army unprotected. As a result the Germans scored another big victory at Kronstadt, driving the second Rumanian army through the Predel Pass. This compelled the fourth Rumanian army to retreat to the Moldavian boundary. But much of this was hidden from the allies for weeks to come. The means of communication were entirely in the hands of the Germans, Austrians and Bulgarians. Their claims of speedy victories over the Rumanians were discounted at London, Paris and Rome. As a result, America and the neutral world were still looking for some decisive action by the Rumanians and the allied armies of 470,000 men at Salonika, at a time when the allied victory drive had come to naught. Only Petrograd seemed to know the exact status of the World war in that hour, and they kept up a bold front for some weeks to come. But revolution was on the way.

Fifteen Years After. Today we know from official source records, that Rumania went into the World war on Aug. 27, 1916, because Russia was apparently winning the war with another victory drive against Austria. A Russian army of more than a million men came forward in Volhynia and Bukovina all through June and July, 1916. The Austrian armies were quickly defeated. As usual, the Slav element refused to fight against Russian blood brothers. But when Rumania insisted on getting the rich provinces of Bessarabia from Russia as part of her pay for joining the allied victory drive in 1916, the czar and his government refused to accede, until late in August. By that time the allied drive on four fronts was petering out, and the Germans were able to crush Rumania in a few weeks, just as they had crushed Serbia late in 1916. Uncle Sam in that hour had gathered all available regulars and National Guardsmen along the Mexican border, to prevent further border raids by Pancho Villa and his Mexican revolutionist bands. In that first week in October, 1916, these Yankees were training hard for service in Mexico. Little did they dream, that instead of the allies winning a speedy victory, they would be worse off than ever, by the time winter came in 1916. Still less did they dream of our going into the Armageddon on the side of the allies. For in that very hour, Woodrow Wilson was making his November election drive behind the slogan: "He kept us out of the war." To American military leaders, this was no mere figure of speech. They actually believed Germany utterly exhausted; Austria crushed; and Bulgaria and Turkey helpless. Today we know that it was the allied side that was nearer collapse, than the German. And when Russia finally went Bolshevik in February, 1917, Uncle Sam had to take Russia's place, and help end the World war. And fifteen years thereafter, America and all the Christian world are paying the price of that war waste and loss, in a world wide business depression. And seventy cents of every American tax dollar are going for wars; past, present and future.

AGRY in the night. Colic! No cause for alarm if Castoria is handy. This pure vegetable preparation brings quick comfort, and can never harm. It is the sensible thing when children are ailing. Whether it's the stomach, or the little bowels; colic or constipation; diarrhoea. When they become restless, or the breath is bad. Whenever there's need of gentle regulation. Children love the taste of Castoria, and its mildness makes it safe for frequent use.

And a more liberal dose of Castoria is always better for growing children than strong medicines meant only for adult use.
